

Mr. Patrick O'Meara

Assistant Professor of Accounting

Email: pomeara@niagara.edu

Phone: 716-286-8167

Bio

Patrick O'Meara is professionally qualified to teach accounting and finance programs. He has an MBA from Niagara University (Class of 2002) and a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Windsor. He is a Certified Management Accountant (CMA) and a Chartered Professional Accountant (CPA). In addition, he is a Certified Financial Planner (CFP). Patrick has taught at Red Deer College University, and the Southern Alberta Institute of Technology (SAIT), both in Canada. He has also held posts as Chair of Business and Commerce programs at the Donald School of Business, Red Deer College University and Chair of Accounting, Finance and Economics programs at the school of business at Centennial College, Toronto, Canada. He is the principal of the Innovative Scholar Inc. and has written three books on topics, such as, personal credit, personal finance and mutual funds. Prior to arriving at Niagara University he was Senior Director of Training Services at the Canadian Institute of Financial Planning (CIFP).